The university motto, “The measure of a Life is its Service” was once featured on a stained-glass window in the most prominent building on campus, Old Main. When the building burned in 1982, the window was destroyed. Although it was lost the quote it featured would live on.

In 2020, Frank Parker, vice president for Student Affairs, came up with the idea of recreating the historic window.

“We want to reconnect with our history,” Parker said. “Obviously, our
