7. Now you will enter informat on about the Responsible Party for this EIN request. Usually, the responsible party would be the President or the Treasurer of the student organizat ons. Note* The Responsible Party must have an SSN/ITIN to make this request for an EIN with the IRS. Once the top blanks are filled in, you will choose one of the opt ons, usually the first opt on "I am a responsible and duly authorized o cer or member of this organizat on." Then click "Cont nue>>"

- 8. Af er this step, the website will ask you for informat on about addresses associated with the request. List an address where you want to receive o cial mail for the student organizat on, usually the personal address of an organizat on o cer or advisor. The IRS will mail you a hard copy of your EIN, that is why they ask for an address. This is likely the only t me they will contact you through the mail. The IRS may also ask for an email address.
  - The address cannot be the Student Involvement, Fraternity & Sorority Life, Club Sports, or College of Osteopathic Medicine, as a university department cannot accept mail for a student organizat on.
  - Make sure you use your organizat on's o cial name on record when you were approved. The use of SHSU, Sam Houston, or Sam Houston State University cannot be used within your organizat on's name on an EIN applicat on.
  - Screenshots cannot be provided for these final steps, but if you follow all the prompts and finish the process, you will be set.
